In the Chiefs absence Lt. M. Rampacek submitted the report.

12 calls for the month of December.

All bills are in for 2016. The Chief be out of town until January 30, 2017.

NEW BUSINESS:

Commissioner Wright advised the Board that the Division of Fire Safety is monitoring all Local Enforcing Agency's to see if firehouses are inspected and registered properly. The Jamesburg Firehouse has a Life Hazard Use Registration for the bar area in the basement, and will probably need a second LHU registration for the meeting room area, since it can hold more than 50 people and is open to the public.

Borough engineer dropped off the plans for the Handicap Ramp. Will forward them to President Stonaker.

Budget approved by the State. Board received a copy of approved budget.

Election will be on February 18, 2017 at the Firehouse from 2pm to 9 pm. There are 2 seats available, William Stonaker, and Patrick Connelly's terms are expiring. Commissioner Patrick Connelly advised the board that he will not be running for Commissioner at this time.

Question from W. Stonaker: To Attorney Youssouf,
Have you heard of anyone videoing fire equipment?

Answer from Attorney Youssouf,
No, as per homeland Security no one should be permitted to enter the
